DON'T YOU DANCE THE POLKA?

E. Ferrett & C.º N.º 212 Chestnut St. Phil.^a

How nice on moonlight nights to roam, As arm in arm you walk ah! To whisper to your La-dy love, Oh can you dance the Pol-ka

Will you dance the Pol-ka? Don't yoy danc the Pol-ka? All earthly care dis-solves in air If you but dance the Pol-ka

2

Young girls who'd win fond husbands true,
 Be sure you learn the Polka,
 And bachelors should learn it too,
 Into their hearts to walk ah;
 Can you dance the Polka?
 Don't you dance the Polka?
 (Spoken. Will you dance the Polka?)
 All earthly care dissolves in air,
 If you but dance the Polka.

3

Young folks, who wed for best or worse,
 When pretty babes you nurse O!
 To Polka tunes sing cradle verse,
 And all the steps rehearse O!
 Make em dance the Polka,
 Wont they dance the Polka;
 (Spoken. Bless you dance the Polka.)
 Their ma to please their teeth with ease
 They'll cut, to dance the Polka

Don't you dance the Polka.
